INDEX TO VOLUME CLVI.

AUTHORS.

Adams, Charles S. Norfolk South District Medical Society. Resolutions regarding fees for life insurance examinations, 555.
Adams, J. F. A., and Rand, J. P. The Rutland Sanatorium: corrections, 95.
Aitken, H. F., and Ayer, James B. Note on the arteries of the corpus striatum, 768.
Ames, John L. A case of poisoning by nitrobenzole, 203.
Ashford, Bailey K., and King, W. W. Observations on the campaign against uncinariasis in Porto Rico, 415.
Austin, Cecil Kent. On mountain-climbing for professional men, 799.
Ayer, James B., and Aitken, H. F. Note on the arteries of the corpus striatum, 768.

Badger, George S. C. The physical welfare of the public school children, 667.
Bainbridge, William Seaman. Transmissibility and curability of cancer, 835.
Balch, Franklin G. A case of gastric ulcer. Perforation; operation; recovery, 437.
Barnes, Harry A. Prophylaxis of post-operative diphtheria, 705.
Barnes, H. A., and Coolidge, A., Jr. Recent progress in laryngology, 571.
Barney, J. D., Greenough, R. B., and Simmons, C. C. End results of 376 primary operations for breast cancer at the Massachusetts General Hospital between January 1, 1894, and January 1, 1904, 813.
Bartlett, W. B. Localized leucocytosis associated with atypical phagocytic cells, 629.
Beach, H. H. A. Chronic enlargement of prostatic gland: suprapubic section and enucleation, 175; perforating duodenal ulcer: operation, 176.
Blake, Clarence John. The relationship of the physician to the public need, 225.
Blake, John B. Medical aspects of athletics in preparatory schools, 106; a specimen of self mutilation in a patient suffering from alcoholic insanity, 202.
Bohm, Max. Hysterical trunk deformity, 435; physical therapeutics at the Massachusetts General Hospital. Opening of the hydrotherapeutic department, 178.
Bolles, William P. Operation for hypertrophied prostate. Dislocation of cervical vertebræ, 199.
Bowen, John T., and Towle, Harvey P. Report on dermatology, 709.
Bradford, E. H. Report on orthopedic surgery, 205.
Brewer, Isaac W. The summer climate of Oracle, Pima County, Arizona, 567.
Brooks, Harlow. Visceral arteriosclerosis, 269.
Brown, Frank E. A symposium on hydrotherapy, 797.
Brown, Percy. Note on the Röntgen diagnosis of urinary calculus: the preparation of the patient, 566.
Brown, Philip King. Gall bladder disease with special reference to its gastric symptoms, 557; letter from San Francisco. The present hygienic and professional situation, 587.
Bryant, Joseph D. The American Medical Association, its aims and interests, 727.
Bryant, W. Sohier. The conservation of hearing in operations on the mastoid region, 300.
Burrage, W. L. Recent progress in gynecology, 271, 303.

Cabot, Arthur Tracy. A contribution to the study of hydronephrosis, 250.
Canfield, W. C. Practical considerations in the treatment of neurasthenia, 352.
Carey, H. W. Sahli's desmoid reaction, 562.
Carleton, O. G. Gift to Lawrence General Hospital, 127.
Chapin, Lawrence D. A case of pleurisy with effusion, treated by intrapleural injection of formalin, 505.
Chase, Richard F. Hyperacidity not the rule in gastric ulcer, 63.
Cheever, David W. Mens sana in corpore sano, 1.
Chenery, William E. A new device for adjusting the forehead mirror, 330.
Christian, Henry A. Diagnosis of dilatation of the duodenum; a clinical note, 609; progress in the theory and practice of medicine, 362; the cause of a positive agglutination reaction in icterus, 536.
Chute, Arthur L. Renal and ureteral hematuria, 33.
Clapp, Herbert C. Cold air in incurable consumption, 850.
Cobb, Farrar. Acute hematogenous infection of one kidney in persons apparently well. Report of a case and a study of the subject, 97; report of a case of cancer of the uterus alive and well six years after pan-hysterectomy. Five years after the hysterectomy symptoms of gastric cancer caused by hernia of the stomach with adhesions. Operation. Recovery, 36.
Cobb, Farrar, and Vickery, Herman F. Perforating typhoid ulcer; operation, 177.
Coffin, Rockwell A. A new operation for correction of the nasal septum, 79.
Coolidge, A., Jr. Vocal nodules in children, 704; case of foreign body in the bronchus, 813.
Coolidge, A., Jr., and Barnes, H. A. Recent progress in laryngology, 571.
Courtney, J. W. Three cases of extensive nerve injury from removal of cervical glands, 568.
Crandon, L. R. G. General peritonitis. Operation. Recovery, 204
Crandon, L. R. G., and Scannell, David D. General peritonitis. Prolonged irrigation of the abdominal cavity, 6.
Cumston, Charles G. He was an Englishman, 159; the biography of Michel Servetus, the discoverer of the pulmonary circulation, 451; the surgical aspects of bronchietasis, particularly in children and young adults, 39.
Cunningham, John H., Jr. Treatment of prostatic hypertrophy. The consideration of the various methods of treatment based upon the mortality and the report of twenty-four cases of median perineal prostatectomy, 599, 636.

Davis, Lincoln. A case of multiple papillomata of the bladder, 810.
Denny, C. F. A method of treating the appendicular stump, 309.
Derby, Hasket. On the proper inspection of immigrants and school children in regard to the occurrence of trachoma, 298.
Dock, George. Morphine in tuberculosis, 685.
Donoghue, Francis D. The Boston Society of Examining Physicians and Surgeons, 797; cervical adenitis with reference to mouth infection, 392.
Drew, C. A. Some medical problems in the state's service, 2.
Durgin, S. H. School hygiene, 669.

Eastman, A. C. The physician's responsibility in the training of infants, 738.

Fitz, Reginald H. The border land of medicine and surgery, 655.
Fitzgerald, James B. Physical training in Boston public schools, 662.
Floyd, Cleaveland, and Hawes, John B., 2d. The use of tuberculin in the early diagnosis of tuberculosis in a large out-patient clinic, 694.
Franz, Shepherd Ivory. Pulse-pressure estimation, 777.
Frazier, Charles H. University of Pennsylvania Medical School raises requirements for admission, 257.
French, J. M. Can a specific disease be aborted? 137.

Gage, Homer. Empyema and abscess of the lung as sequels of acute suppurative appendicitis, 461.
Getchell, Albert C. The medical knowledge of Shakespeare, 65, 109.
Gilman, Charles S. Hemorrhoids and their treatment, 468.
Goldthwait, Joel E. The treatment of tuberculosis of the hip-joint (hip disease), 193.
Good, Frederick L. A new obstetric forceps, 361.
Goodall, Harry W., and Joslin, Elliott P. Progress in gastro-intestinal diseases. Gastro-enterostomy, 506.
Graham, Douglas. The relative value of massage, exercises and baths in the treatment of heart affections, 326.
Graves, W. P. Periductal myxoma of the breast, 503; report on the trypsin treatment of cancer, 129.
Greene, D. Crosby, Jr. Review of cases of cancer of the larynx treated in the wards of the Massachusetts General Hospital since 1874, 811.
Greenough, R. B., Simmons, C. C., and Barney, J. D. End results of 376 primary operations for breast cancer at the Massachusetts General Hospital between January 1, 1894, and January 1, 1904, 813.
Griffin, Walter A. A case of dermoid cyst of the anterior mediastinum, 9.

Hall, J. N., Levy, Robert, and Stover, George H. Aneurism of the aorta, 70.
Hanson, William C. The effect of industry on health, 421.
Hare, C. H. A case of pyelitis during pregnancy, 243.
Harrington, Charles. Hygiene, 610, 642; an outbreak of diphtheria due to infected milk, 848.
Harrington, F. B. A case of interstitial pregnancy, 180; malignant tumor of the esophagus and demonstration of the method of feeding after resection, 180.
Harrington, F. B., and Smith, W. H. A case of echinococcus cyst of lung and abdomen, 180.
Harrington, Thomas F. Medical supervision versus medical inspection of public schools, 664.
Harrington, Thomas F., and Simpson, Charles E. The tuberculosis problem of the Middlesex North District, Massachussetts, 595.
Hastings, Robert W. Hospitals for children, 607.
Hawes, John B., 2d. A plea for the children, 315.
Hawes, John B., 2d, and Floyd, Cleaveland. The use of tuberculin in the early diagnosis of tuberculosis in a large out-patient clinic, 694.
Herrick, James B. The relation of the clinical laboratory to the practitioner of medicine, 763.
Hill, T. Chittenden. The operative treatment of hemorrhoids, including a brief consideration of the different operations, characteristic arrangement of the tumors and the technique of the ligature operation under local anesthesia, 464.
Huddleston, John H. Resolutions in regard to milk by the New York Academy of Medicine, 413.

Johnson, Frederick W. Abdominal tumor weighing eighty-three pounds, 610; cancer of the vulva, 398; gangrenous gall bladder in an umbilical hernia, 642.
Johnston, Richard H. The treatment of chronic antrum disease, 743.
Jones, D. F. Case of acute gangrenous pancreatitis, 438.
Joslin, Elliott P., and Goodall, Harry W. Progress in gastro-intestinal diseases. Gastro-enterostomy, 506.
Juettner, Otto. American Physio-Therapeutic Association, 159.

Kaan, George W. A plea for conservatism in gynecology, 539.
Keany, F. J. Erythema gangrenosum (a tropho-neurosis. A case of typhoid fever developing a puerpuric eruption of the skin, 201.
Kepler, C. O. A new organization proposed, 413.
King, W. W., and Ashford, Bailey K. Observations on the campaign against uncinariasis in Porto Rico, 415.
Klotz, Oskar. Experimental studies in arteriosclerosis, 267.
Knapp, Philip C. Recent progress in neurology. Aphasia, 669.

Langworthy, Henry Glover. Thrombosis of the cavernous sinuses; with report of four cases, 528.
Legg, Arthur T. The treatment of rigid flat-foot. Excision of scaphoid, 741.
Levy, Robert, Hall, J. N., and Stover, George H. Aneurism of the aorta, 741.
Locke, Edwin A. The crusade against tuberculosis in Germany, 379, 427.
Lothrop, H. A. Trophic gangrene of little finger. Fracture of spinal column, 203.
Lovett, Robert W. Medical inspection in schools, 235.
Lund, F. B. A case of Talma's operation for cirrhosis of the liver, 203; partial gastrectomy for carcinoma of the stomach. Gastro-enterostomy with entero-enterostomy for ulcer of the pylorus, finally requiring division of the ascending loop. A case of intra-capsular fracture of the neck of the femur treated by fixing the fragments with a wire nail, 202; remarks on the surgery of the right upper abdominal quadrant, 349; some surgical aspects of empyema, 497.

Mason, Nathaniel R., and Rhea, Lawrence J. Report of a case of carcinoma of the vermiform appendix, probably primary, 44.
McCollom, John H. The decrease of infectious diseases consequent upon the application of preventive measures, 226.
Mears, J. Ewing. Letter from a " round-the-worlder " on the home stretch. Medical matters in Japan; in China; in India, 285.
Merrill, A. A. The procreation of defectives, 523.
Mitchell, H. W. Chloral delirium: a case report, 141.
Monks, George H. Flushing the intestinal canal through multiple enterotomy openings, 809.
Morrow, Prince A. The control of syphilis and venereal diseases, 169.
Morse, John Lovett. Certified milk, 413; diseases of the naso-pharynx in infancy, 489.
Morse, John Lovett, and Murphy, Fred T. Two cases of cirrhosis of the liver in infancy in connection with congenital obstruction of the bile ducts, 102.
Morse, John Lovett, and Rotch, Thomas Morgan. Report on pediatrics, 11; progress in pediatrics, 851.
Mosher, Harris Peyton. A case of fatal meningitis after removal of the anterior end of the middle turbinate, 708.
Mumford, J. G. History and ethics in medicine, 525; progress in surgery, 400.
Murphy, Fred T. Observations on experimental incisions through the abdominal wall of cats, 295.
Murphy, Fred T., and Morse, John Lovett. Two cases of cirrhosis of the liver in infancy in connection with congenital obstruction of the bile ducts, 102.
Murphy, Fred T., and Rotch, Thomas Morgan. Gastro-enteric obstruction in early infancy, 589, 630.

Newell, F. S. Pyelitis in pregnancy and the puerperium, 241.
Nichols, Edward H. The professional trainer's theory of training, 104.

Painter, Charles F. Injury of spinal cord. Operation for correction of subsequent deformity, 115; subdeltoid bursitis, 345.
Parker, Harry C. The ocular and general symptoms in nasal obstruction. The report of an unusual case, 331.
Paul, W. E. Myasthenia gravis; demonstration of a case, 811.
Powers, J. H., Jr. Technique of submucous resection of nasal septum, 702.
Pratt, Joseph H. Progress in pathology, 744, 778, 813.
Putnam, Helen C. Instruction in the physiology and hygiene of sex; its practicability as demonstrated in several public schools, 132.
Putnam, James J. Pulse-pressure estimation, 330; unusual pupillary phenomena in hysteria, 434.

Rand, J. P., and Adams, J. F. A. The Rutland Sanatorium: corrections, 95.
Reynolds, Edward. The repair of cystocele, 774.
Rhea, Lawrence J., and Mason, Nathaniel R. Report of a case of carcinoma of the vermiform appendix, probably primary, 44.
Richardson, Maurice H. Gallstones without symptoms and symptoms without gallstones, 687; on the diagnosis of tumors with special reference to the evil results of over confidence and delay, 287.
Robinson, Beverley. " Gallstones without symptoms and symptoms without gallstones," 797.
Rotch, Thomas Morgan, and Morse, John Lovett. Report on pediatrics, 11; progress in pediatrics, 851.
Rotch, Thomas Morgan, and Murphy, Fred T. Gastro-enteric obstruction in early infancy, 589, 630.

Scannell, David D. Case of ureteral calculus, 204.
Scannell, David D., and Crandon, L. R. G. General peritonitis. Prolonged irrigation of the abdominal cavity, 6.
Schott, Theodor. On the treatment of chronic diseases of the heart, 623.
Scott, Henry R. The Legal Aid Society, 523.
Scudder, Charles L. Gastro-enterostomy in infants. A new instrument, 80.
Sever, James Warren. The Bier suction treatment of tubercular sinuses, 736.
Shattuck, George B. Cerebral tumor of the right frontal lobe, 204.
Shattuck, George C. Letter from Honolulu. Rarity of cancer in the Sandwich Islands. Possibility of yellow fever, 191; letter from Tokyo. Imperial institute for infectious diseases. A serum institute. A lymph institute. A new antitoxin serum for typhoid leprosy. Scleroderma, 223.
Sherman, Frank M. Successful reduction of dislocation of the neck, two cases, 542.
Sidis, Boris. Studies in psychopathology, 321, 357, 394, 432, 472.
Simmons, Channing C. Demonstration and classification of benign breast tumors, 436.
Simmons, C. C., Greenough, R. B., and Barney, J. D. End results of 376 primary operations for breast cancer at the Massachusetts General Hospital between January 1, 1894, and January 1, 1904, 813.
Simpson, Charles E., and Harrington, Thomas F. The tuberculosis problem of the Middlesex North District, Massachusetts, 595.
Smith, Frank S. Opposed to lodge or corporation work by contract, 95.
Smith, Homer B. Diffuse peritonitis following appendicitis in young children with clinical reports of seven cases, 383.
Smith, W. H., and Harrington, F. B. A case of echinococcus cyst of the lung and abdomen, 180.
Spear, E. D. Sleeping sickness: an error, 315.
Stoll, Henry Farnum. Ancient and modern ideas concerning tuberulocus adenitis, 139.
Stone, J. S. Acute epiphyseal and periosteal infections in infants and children, 842.
Stover, George H., Hall, J. N., and Levy, Robert. Aneurism of the aorta, 70.
Swift, J. B. Pyelitis complicating pregnancy, 239.

Taussig, Albert E. Pneumaturia with report of a case, 769.
Taylor, E. W. Tumor of the spinal cord leading to destruction of the lumbar region, hydrocephalus, double optic neuritis, and painless labor, 161.
Tenney, Benjamin. The treatment of chronic urethral discharge, 425.
Thorndike, Paul. A few notes on a few cases of renal tuberculosis, 265.
Thorndike, Paul, and Watson, F. S. Recent progress in genito-urinary surgery, 143.
Tobey, E. N. The curative action of atoxyl in the treatment of trypanosomiasis, 31.
Tobey, George L., Jr. Essential points in the technique of submucous resection of the nasal septum, 706; fatal results from intranasal operation, 709.
Towle, Harvey P. Dermatitis exfoliativa and dermatitis herpetiformis, 174.
Towle, Harvey P., and Bowen, John T. Report on dermatology, 709.

Van Nuys, F. An extraordinary blood. Presence of atypical phagocytic cells, 300
Verhoeff, F. H. Tuberculous scleritis, a commonly unrecognized form of tuberculosis, 317.
Vickery, Herman F. Empyema from the physician's standpoint, 501.
Vickery, Herman F., and Cobb, Farrar. Perforating typhoid ulcer: operation, 177.

Walker, George. Complete suprapubic prostatectomy under nitrous oxide gas anesthesia, 302; primary ligation of the vas deferens and its accompanying vessels before manipulating the testicle during its removal for tuberculosis or malignant growth, 394.
Watson, F. S. The surgical treatment of renal tuberculosis, 263; two cases of prostatic hypertrophy in which the prostate was removed by total perineal prostatectomy, 199.
Watson, F. S., and Thorndike, Paul. Recent progress in genito-urinary surgery, 143.
White, Charles J. Feigned eruption in an hysterical man, 436; some statistics of indigestion in dermatological patients, 197.
Withington, Charles F. A case of multiple symmetrical exostosis. A case of chronic ulcer of the stomach, unrelieved by several operations, 200; a case simulating cirrhosis of the liver, due to carcinoma of the kidney and vena cava, 237.

Young, Ernest Boyen. An analysis of twenty-one cases of pelvic abscess treated by vaginal section, 76; coincident extra- and intra-uterine pregnancy, 733.

SUBJECTS.

Abdomen. General peritonitis. Prolonged irrigation of the abdominal cavity, Crandon, L. R. G., and Scannell, David D., 6; a case of ecchinococcus cyst of lung and abdomen, Harrington, F. B., and Smith, W. H., 180; remarks on the surgery of the right upper abdominal quadrant, Lund, F. B., 349; observations on experimental incisions through the abdominal wall of cats, Murphy, Fred T., 295.

Abscess. Empyema and abscess of the lung as sequels of acute suppurative appendicitis, Gage, Homer, 461; an analysis of twenty-one cases of pelvic abscess treated by vaginal section, Young, Ernest Boyen, 76.

Addresses. The relationship of the physician to the public need, Blake, Clarenee John, 225; the American Medical Association, its aims and interests, Bryant, Joseph D., 727; mens sana in corpore sano, Cheever, David W., 1; the border land of medicine and surgery, Fitz, Reginald H., 655; the relation of the clinical laboratory to the practitioner of medicine, Herrick, James B., 763; history and ethics in medicine, Mumford, J. G., 525.

Adenitis. Cervical adenitis with reference to mouth infection, Donoghue, Francis D., 392; ancient and modern ideas concerning tuberculous adenitis, Stoll, Henry Farnum, 139.

Alcohol. A specimen of self mutilation in a patient suffering from alcoholic insanity, Blake, John B., 202.

Aneurism. Aneurism of the aorta, Hall, J. N., Levy, Robert, and Stover, George H., 70.

Antrum Disease. The treatment of chronic antrum disease, Johnston, Richard H., 743.

Appendix. A method of treating the appendicular stump, Denny, C. F., 399; empyema and abscess of the lung as sequels of acute suppurative appendicitis, Gage, Homer, 461; report of a case of carcinoma of the vermiform appendix, probably primary, Mason, Nathaniel R., and Rhea, Lawrence J., 44; diffuse peritonitis following appendicitis in young children with clinical reports of seven cases, Smith, Homer B., 383.

Arteriosclerosis. Visceral arteriosclerosis, Brooks, Harlow, 269; experimental studies in arteriosclerosis, Klotz, Oskar, 267.

Athletics. Medical aspects of athletics in preparatory schools, Blake, John B., 106; physical training in Boston public schools, Fitzgerald, James B., 662; the professional trainer's theory of training, Nichols, Edward H,, 104.

Bladder. A case of multiple papillomata of the bladder, Davis, Lincoln, 810.

Books Reviewed. Addison, Christopher, editor, Ellis's demonstrations of anatomy, 275; Attfield, John, chemistry: general, medical and pharmaceutical, 148; Austin, A. E., manual of clinical chemistry, 613; Barker, Lewellys F., anatomical terminology, 751; Bell, Joseph, notes on surgery for nurses, 20; Bernays, Augustus Charles, golden rules of surgery, 182; Bland-Sutton, J., tumors, innocent and malignant, 305; Brickner, Walter M., and Moschcowitz, Eli, surgical suggestions, 82; Broadbent, William H., and John F. H., heart disease and aneurysm of the aorta, with special reference to prognosis and treatment, 545; Bryant, Joseph D., and Buck, Albert H., editors, American practice of surgery, vol. I, 83, vol. ii, 333; Budin, Pierre, the nursling, 715; Burr, C. B., a primer of psychology and mental diseases, 118; Butler, George F., a textbook of materia medica, therapeutics and pharmacology, 19; Chance, E. J., nature, causes, variety and treatment of bodily deformities, 212; Clubbe, Charles P. B., the diagnosis and treatment of intussusception, 305; Coleman, Warren, a syllabus of materia medica, 305; Crook, H. Evelyn, high frequency currents, 212; Cunning, Joseph, aids to surgery, 118; Curtis, Edward, nature and health, 20; Dayton, Hughes, practice of medicine, 577; Ehrlich, Paul, collected studies on immunity, 148; Einhorn, Max, diseases of the stomach, 19; Emery, W. D'Este, clinical bacteriology and hematology for practitioners, 676; Ferrier, David, on tabes dorsalis, 85; Forel, August, l'Âme et le système nerveux: hygiène et pathologie, 211; Fournier, Alfred, the treatment of syphilis, 20; Francine, Albert P., pulmonary tuberculosis: its modern and specialized treatment, 367; Freyer, P. J., enlargement of the prostate, with a description of the author's operation of total enucleation of the organ, 116; Gould, George M., the practitioner's medical dictionary, 403; Grayson, Charles Prevost, the diseases of the nose, throat and ear, 613; Guermonprez, études sur le traitement des fractures des membres, 18; Haward, Warrington, phlebitis and thrombosis, 676; Hawes, Alfred T., talks to first year nurses, 646; Hobson, Overton, Helouan: an Egyptian health resort and how to reach it, 84; Jackson, Thomas W., tropical medicine, 514; Jastrow, Joseph, the subconscious, 18; Jellinek, M. U. Dr. S., medizinische annendungen der elektrizität, 367; Keen, William Williams, editor, surgery: its principles and practice, 51; Kelly, Howard A., operative gynecology, 82; Howe, Lucien, the muscles of the eye, 823; Kyle, John Johnson, manual of the diseases of the ear, nose and throat, 148; Leathes, J. B., problems in animal metabolism, 752; Lippincott, J. B. Company, the Harvey lectures, 211; Long, John H., elements of general chemistry with experiments, 246; a textbook of elementary analytical chemistry, qualitative and volumetric, 857; Luckett, William H., paraffin in surgery, 514; Martindale, W. Harrison, and Westcott, W. Wynn, extra pharmacopeia of Martindale and Westcott, 478; McCaw, John, aids to the diagnosis and treatment of diseases of children, 577; Medico-Psychological Association, handbook for attendants on the insane, 182; Metchnikoff, Elie, the new hygiene, 403; Mills, Charles R., and others, tumours of the cerebrum, 212; Moor, Cresacre G., editor, applied bacteriology, 676; Morton, Edward Reginald, essentials of medical electricity, 367; Moynihan, B. G. A., on retro-peritoneal hernia; being the Arris and Gale lectures on "The anatomy and surgery of the peritoneal fossæ," 333; O'Malley, Austin, and Walsh, James J., essays in pastoral medicine, 333; Palmer, Margaret D., lessons on massage, 715; Parsons, J. Inglis, the operative treatment of prolapse and retroversion of the uterus, 438; Paterson, Herbert J., gastric surgery, 148; Pattee, Alida Frances, practical dietetics with reference to diet in disease, 246; Paul, George E., nursing in the acute infectious fevers, 52; Pearson, C. Yelverton, modern surgical technique in its relation to operations and wound treatment, 212; Pollard, Bilton, Heath's manual of minor surgery and bandaging, 182; Rockwell, W. H., Jr., dissecting manual based on Cunningham's anatomy, 20; Riley, Cassius M., toxicology, 148; Satterlee, George Reese, outlines of human embryology, 333; Saundby, Robert, the treatment of diseases of the digestive system, 676; Schlesinger, Hermann, indications for operation in diseases of the internal organs, 246; Solis-Cohen, Myer, woman in girlhood, wifehood and womanhood, 546; Starling, Ernest H., recent advances in the physiology of digestion, 82; Starr, M. Allen, organic and functional nervous diseases, 367; Stenhouse, John, the medical epitome series. Pathology, general and special, 676; Stewart, Purves, the diagnosis of nervous diseases, 368; Thomson, H. Hyslop, pulmonary phthisis, 246; Thorington, James, retinoscopy, 752; the ophthalmoscope and how to use it, 752; Tigerstedt, Robert, a textbook of human physiology, 19; Wallian, Samuel S., rhythmotherapy, 20; Ware, Martin W., plaster of Paris and how to use it, 305; Wells, David W., psychology applied to medicine, 577; Whiting, Arthur, aids to medical diagnosis, 612; Whitman, Royal, treatise on orthopedic surgery, 514; Williams, Leonard, minor maladies and their treatment, 83; Witthaus, R. A., medical jurisprudence, 478; the medical student's manual of chemistry, 823; Yonge, Eugene S., polypus of the nose, 85; Zahorsky, John, medical guides and monograph series, 85.

Bronchiectasis. The surgical aspects of bronchiectasis, Cumston, Charles G., 30.

Bronchus. Case of foreign body in the bronchus, Coolidge, A., Jr., 813.

Cancer. Report of a case of cancer of the uterus alive and well six years after pan-hysterectomy. Five years after the hysterectomy symptoms of gastric ulcer caused by hernia of the stomach with adhesions. Operation. Recovery, Cobb, Farrar, 36; report on the trypsin treatment of cancer, Graves, W. P., 129; cancer of the vulva, Johnson, Frederick W., 398; partial gastrectomy for carcinoma of the stomach, Lund, F. B., 202; report of a case of carcinoma of the vermiform appendix, probably primary, Mason, Nathaniel R., and Rhea, Lawrence J., 44; letter from Honolulu. Rarity of cancer in the Sandwich Islands, Shattuck, George C., 191; a case simulating cirrhosis of the liver, due to carcinoma of the kidney and vena cava, Withington, Charles F., 237; transmissibility and curability of cancer, Bainbridge, William Seaman, 835; review of cases of cancer of the larynx treated in the wards of the Massachusetts General Hospital since 1874, Greene, D. Crosby, Jr., 811; end results of 376 primary operations for breast cancer at the Massachusetts General Hospital between January 1, 1894, and January 1, 1904, Greenough, R. B., Simmons, C. C., and Barney, J. D., 813.

Cerebral Circulation. Note on the arteries of the corpus striatum, Ayer, James B., and Aitken, H. F., 768.

Chloral. Chloral delirium: a case report, Mitchell, H. W., 141.

Cirrhosis of the Liver. A case of Talma's operation for cirrhosis of the liver, Lund, F. B., 203; two cases of cirrhosis of the liver in infancy in connection with congenital obstruction of the bile ducts, Morse, John Lovett, and Murphy, Fred T., 102; a case simulating cirrhosis of the liver, due to carcinoma of the kidney and vena cava, Withington, Charles F., 237.

Climate. The summer climate of Oracle, Pima County, Arizona, Brewer, Isaac W., 567.

Clinical Meetings. Boston City Hospital 199; Massachusetts General Hospital, 174, 434, 810.

Correspondence. Norfolk South District Medical Society. Resolutions regarding fees for life insurance examinations, Adams, Charles S., 555; the Rutland Sanatorium: corrections, Adams, J. F. A., and Rand, J. P., 95; a symposium on hydrotherapy, Brown, Frank E., 797; letter from San Francisco. The present hygienic and professional situation, Brown, Philip King, 587; London letter. Sir Michael Foster. Royal commission on tuberculosis. Provident dispensaries and "consultations des nourrissons." The "Leno" treatment of chronic ulcers. Anesthetics, C., 256; London letter. Clinical Society of London. Nerve grafting by lateral implantation. Giant growth of feet. "Pulmonary" hypertrophic osteoarthropathy. Conan Doyle. Lister. Wright. Alcohol. Death of Allen Macfadyen, C., 554; gift to Lawrence General Hospital, Carleton, O. G., 127; hyperacidity not the rule in gastric ulcer, Chase, Richard P., 63; he was an Englishman, Cumston, Charles G., 159; morphine in tuberculosis, Dock, George, 685; the Boston Society of Examining Physicians and Surgeons, Donoghue, Francis D., 797; University of Pennsylvania Medical School raises requirements for admission, Frazier, Charles H., 257; a plea for the children, Hawes, John B., 2d. 315; resolutions in regard to milk by the New York Academy of Medicine, Huddleston, John H., 413; American Physio-Therapeutic Association, Juettner, Otto, 159; a new organization proposed, Kepler, C. O., 413; letter from a "round-the-worlder" on the home stretch. Medical matters in Japan; in China; in India, Mears, J. Ewing, 285; the procreation of defectives, Merrill, A. A., 523; certified milk, Morse, John Lovett, 413; "gallstones without symptoms and symptoms without gallstones," Robinson, Beverley, 797; the Legal Aid Society, Scott, Henry R., 523; letter from Honolulu. Rarity of cancer in the Sandwich Islands. Possibility of yellow fever, Shattuck, George C., 191; letter from Tokyo. Imperial institute for infectious diseases. A serum institute. A lymph institute. A new antitoxin serum for typhoid leprosy. Scleroderma, Shattuck, George C., 223; opposed to lodge or corporation work by contract, Smith, Frank S., 95; sleeping sickness: an error, Spear, E. D., 315; letter from Paris. The automobile as a therapeutic agent, "Spectator," 158; letter from Paris. The clinical sense, "Spectator," 795; letter from Paris. Treatment of excessive arterial pressure by high-frequency currents, "Spectator," 448; the curative action of atoxyl in the treatment of trypanosomiasis, Tobey, E. N., 31.

Cremation. Cremation in Great Britain, 95.

Current Literature. 26, 59, 91, 123, 152, 188, 218, 252, 280, 311, 339, 374, 408, 443, 483, 519, 550, 582, 618, 650, 680, 719, 758, 792, 828, 852.

Cyst. A case of dermoid cyst of the anterior mediastinum, Griffin, Walter A., 9; a case of echinococcus cyst of lung and abdomen, Harrington, F. B., and Smith, W. H., 180.
Cystocele. The repair of cystocele, Reynolds, Edward, 774.

Deaths. Adams, Daniel S., 96; Aldrich, Joseph A., 64; Barnes, Justin E., 556; Bartlett, Cyrus K., 32; Bartow, George Warren, 450; Beckwith, Frank E., 32; Bernays, A. C., 726; Bishop, Timothy H., 32; Bontecou, Reed B., 450; Brennan, John W., 654; Brewster, Richard Caldwell, 726; Bryant, Edward Gilman, 96; Butler, Winthrop, 654; Buttles, Marvin Stephen, 654; Campbell, John Munro, 488; Carpenter, Henry W., 726; Church, George Taylor, 378; Combes, Rodney C. F., 414; Crain, William Baker, 344; Davidson, Henry Harris, 224; Donnelly, William H., 224; Dudley, Henry Watson, 32; Everett, James Bradley, 726; Farries, Robert, 488; Foster, Charles A., 726; Francis, Valentine Mott, 708; Gaffney, Henry Joseph, 224; Goodwillie, David H., 686; Gunther, Elsner Christian, 224; Harlow, John Martin, 686; Hill, Thomas, 866; Hubbard, Benjamin, 96; Ives, Sherwood B., 286; Joy, Henry De Witt, 556; Kost, Henry, 128; Lame, William, 378; Leaming, Jonathan F., 588; Lebarbier, Henry A., 160; Lecompte, Walter Augustus, 96; Lombard, Guy Davenport, 726; Lyons, Christopher Philip, 160; MacGregor, Robert Stuart, 450; McDougall, Samuel Jay, 224; Mansfield, Joseph D., 726; Matison, Charles D., 588; Mills, Andrew M., 588; Moore, John, 414; Morris, Theodore F., 64; Morrison, W. F., 524; Muller, Alfons, 96; O'Shea, Joseph, 286; Paun, Amos B., 488; Pitcher, Samuel, 286; Provan, Robert, 286; Reed, Charles, 344; Rupp, Adolph, 258; Seeley, Lamar, 834; Shepherd, George R., 488; Sherwood, Milton See, 686; Skillman, Thomas A., 344; Smith, Junius F., 556; Spence, Arnot, 192; Starbird, Isaac Warren, 224; Starr, Alfred, 96; Stickney, Alonzo Lawrence, 762; Thomas, James Clark, 286; Townsend, Charles Wilmot, 192; Trenwith, Walter Day, 686; Van Deusen, Claudius, 258; Wallian, Samuel Spencer, 834; Watson, George Henry, 726; Weigand, Otto Albert, 450; Wood, Henry J., 622; Young, Irene Du Pont 588.
Dermatology. Deport on dermatology, Bowen, John T., and Towle, Harvey P., 709; dermatitis exfoliativa and dermatitis herpetiformis, Towle, H. P., 174; some statistics of indigestion in dermatological patients, White, Charles J., 197.
Diphtheria. Prophylaxis of post-operative diphtheria, Barnes, Harry A., 705; an outbreak of diphtheria due to infected milk, Harrington, Charles, 848.
Dislocation. Dislocation of cervical vertebræ, Bolles, William P., 109; successful reduction of dislocation of the neck, two cases, Sherman, Frank M., 542.
Duodenum. Diagnosis of dilatation of the duodenum; a clinical note, Christian, Henry A., 609.

Editorials. Meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, 21; the science of education, 22; appointment of Dr. Simon F. Cox as superintendent of Boston tuberculosis hospital, 23; a cyclopedia of American biography, 23; amateur operating, 53; modern psychology, 54; the treatment of cancer with trypanroth, 54; adjournment of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, 55; operations on the central nervous systems, 86; experimental anemias, 87; appointment of Dr. George B. Magrath as medical examiner, 88; report of the Surgeon-General of the United States Navy, 119; lectures on the problems of insanity, 119; the resignation of Dr. William L. Richardson from the Boston Lying-in Hospital, 120; the toxic action of digitalis, 121; the problem of epidemic uncinariasis in Porto Rico, 149; the cause of portal obstruction in cirrhosis of the liver, 150; the recognition of tuberculosis as an industrial factor, 183; cerebral localization, 184; annual report of the Craig Colony for Epileptics, 185; a carcinoma parasite, 185; bills before the Massachusetts Legislature, 213; relation of medicine to dentistry 214; medical research in the Malay Federated States. Beri-beri, 215; popular medical lectures, 247; ophthalmia neonatorum, 248; illustrations that do not illumine, 248; management of truancy, 249; insanity and the law courts, 276; acute cardiac dilatation, 277; intestinal parasites as infecting agents, 278; transactions of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, 278; the laboratory in practice, 306; exhibit of industrial conditions, 306; the diagnosis of trachoma, 307; International Congress of Hygiene and Demography, 307; factory inspection, 334; the American clinic, 335; the International Tuberculosis Congress for 1908, 335; social work at the Massachusetts General Hospital, 368; the milk situation in New York, 369; Professor Muller's visit, 370; the relief of consumptives 403; rewards for scientific achievements, 404; procreation of defectives, 405; social legislation in Germany, 430; renal cysts and cystic kidney, 440; "letters on psychotherapeutics," 441; annual report of Harvard University, 1900–6, 478; medical inspection of schools, 480; street cleaning and health, 480; centenary of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York, 515; supervisory nurses for the Boston public schools, 516; bureau of health for the Philippine Islands, 516; the bacteriology of milk, 547; spirochetes in mouse cancer, 548; the cause of cardiac insufficiency, 577; the half-insane, 578; Harvard Medical Alumni fund, 579; report of the Massachusetts General and Boston City Hospitals, 613; the New Hampshire State Medical Society, 614; the education of defectives, 615; the value of the opsonic index, 646; the diagnosis and prognosis of primary actinomycosis of the central nervous system, 647; the weight of the soul, 647; great Frenchmen, 648; reappointment of Dr. Henry P. Walcott, 648; "the crowbar case," 677; the border land of medicine and surgery, 678; spirochetes and cancer, 679; typhoid spine, 715; housing problems, 716; scientists at play, 717; state medical societies, 753; hospital service, 754; the absinthe question, 755; the ultimate results, indications and contra-indications of epididymectomy in tuberculosis, 787; report of Massachusetts School for Feeble-Minded, 788; a day camp for consumptives, 789; the meeting of the Massachusetts Medical Society, 824; anaphylaxis, 824; an experimental study of the action of Coley's mixed toxins of sarcomata, 825; the housing problem in Washington, 858; the attitude of Texas toward tuberculosis, 859; the Boston milk fund, 859.

Empyema. Empyema and abscess of the lung as sequels of acute suppurative appendicitis, Gage, Homer, 461; some surgical aspects of empyema, Lund, F. B., 497; empyema from the physician's standpoint, Vickery, Herman F., 501.
Erythema Gangrenosum. Erythema gangrenosum (a tropho-neurosis), Keany, F. J., 201.
Exostosis. A case of multiple symmetrical exostosis, Withington, Charles F., 200.

Flat-foot. The treatment of rigid flat-foot. Excision of scaphoid, Legg, Arthur T., 741.
Flies. Flies and disease, 621.
Fracture. Fracture of spinal column, Lothrop, H. A., 203; a case of intracapsular fracture of the neck of the femur treated by fixing the fragments with a wire nail, Lund, F. B., 202.

Gall Bladder. Gall bladder disease with special reference to its gastric symptoms, Brown, Philip King, 557; gangrenous gall bladder in an umbilical hernia, Johnson, Frederick W., 642.
Gallstones. Gallstones without symptoms and symptoms without gallstones, Richardson, Maurice H., 687; "gallstones without symptoms and symptoms without gallstones," Robinson, Beverley, 797.
Gangrene. Gangrenous gall bladder in an umbilical hernia, Johnson, Frederick W., 642; case of acute gangrenous pancreatitis, Jones, D. F., 438; erythema gangrenosum (a tropho-neurosis), Keany, F. J., 201; trophic gangrene of the little finger, Lothrop, H. A., 203.
Gastro-enteric Obstruction. Gastro-enteric obstruction in early infancy, Murphy, Fred T., and Rotch, Thomas Morgan, 589, 630.
Gastro-enterostomy. Progress in gastro-intestinal diseases. Gastro-enterostomy, Joslin, Elliott P., and Goodall, Harry W., 506; gastro-enterostomy with entero-enterostomy for ulcer at the pylorus, finally requiring division of the ascending loop, Lund, F. B., 202; gastro-enterostomy in infants. A new instrument, Scudder, Charles L., 80.
Gynecology. Recent progress in gynecology, Burrage, W. L., 271, 303; report of a case of cancer of the uterus alive and well six years after pan-hysterectomy. Five years after the hysterectomy symptoms of gastric cancer caused by hernia of the stomach with adhesions. Operation. Recovery, Cobb, Farrar, 36; a plea for conservatism in gynecology, Kaan, George W., 530; an analysis of twenty-one cases of pelvic abscess treated by vaginal section, Young, Ernest Boyen, 76.

Heart. The relative value of massage, exercises and baths in the treatment of heart affections, Graham, Douglas, 326; on the treatment of chronic diseases of the heart, Schott, Theodor, 623.
Hemorrhoids. Hemorrhoids and their treatment, Gilman, Charles S., 468; the operative treatment of hemorrhoids, including a brief consideration of the different operations, characteristic arrangement of the tumors and the technique of the ligature operation under local anesthesia, Hill, T. Chittenden, 464.
Hydronephrosis. A contribution to the study of hydronephrosis, Cabot, Arthur T., 259.
Hydrotherapy. A symposium on hydrotherapy, Brown, Frank E., 707.
Hygiene. The effect of industry on health, Hanson, William C., 421; hygiene, Harrington, Charles, 610, 642; purification of sewage, 63.
Hysteria. Hysterical trunk deformity, Böhm, Max, 435; unusual pupillary phenomena in hysteria, Putnam, James J., 434; feigned eruption in an hysterical man, White, Charles J., 436.

Icterus. The cause of a positive agglutination reaction in icterus, Christian, Henry A., 536.
Infection. Acute epiphyseal and periosteal infection in infants and children, Stone, J. S., 842.
Infectious Diseases. The decrease of infectious diseases consequent upon the application of preventive measures, McCollom, John H., 226.
Insanity. Expert testimony in insanity, 684.
Intestinal Canal. Flushing the intestinal canal through multiple enterotomy openings, Monks, George H., 809.

Kidney. Renal and ureteral hematuria, Chute, Arthur L., 33; acute hematogenous infection of one kidney in persons apparently well. Report of a case and a study of the subject, Cobb, Farrar, 97; case of ureteral calculus, Scannell, David D., 204; pneumaturia with report of a case, Taussig, Albert E., 769; a case simulating cirrhosis of the liver, due to carcinoma of the kidney and vena cava, Withington, Charles F., 237.

Lord Lister. Lord Lister's eightieth birthday, 343.

Mastoid Region. The conservation of hearing in operations on the mastoid region, Bryant, W. Sohier, 300.
Medical Inspection. Medical supervision versus medical inspection of public schools, Harrington, Thomas F., 664; medical inspection in schools, Lovett, Robert W., 235.
Medical Notes. 24, 56, 88, 122, 150, 186, 215, 249, 278, 308, 336, 371, 405, 442, 481, 517, 548, 579, 616, 649, 679, 717, 756, 790, 826, 860.
Medical Problems. Some medical problems in the state's service, Drew, C. A., 2.
Memorial. Memorial to W. K. Otis, 31; in memoriam: Dr. Mary Putnam Jacobi, 222; a memorial to Dr. James R. Chadwick, 448.
Meningitis. A case of fatal meningitis after removal of the anterior end of the middle turbinate, Mosher, Harris Peyton, 708.
Michel Servetus. The biography of Michel Servetus, the discoverer of the pulmonary circulation, Cumston, Charles G., 451.
Miscellany. Surgical treatment of goiter based upon 300 personal observations, 30; memorial to W. K. Otis, 31; purification of sewage, 63; cremation in Great Britain, 95; resolutions on the resignation of Dr. William L. Richardson from Boston Lying-In Hospital, 126; the medicine in Shakespeare, 127; the use and abuse of sodium bicarbonate, 157; Strauss's "Salome" from a medical standpoint, 157; in memoriam: Dr. Mary Putnam Jacobi, 222; New York association for improving condition of the poor, 222; announcement of scholarships and fellowships by the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York, 223; sleeping sickness in French East Africa, 284; single examining and licensing state board for medical practitioners in New York State, 284; Lord Lister's eightieth birthday, 343; Avenue Louis Pasteur, 412; a memorial to Dr. James R. Chadwick, 448; Philadelphia Pathological Society's semi-centennial, 554; Massachusetts General Hospital resolution on the resignation of J. W. Elliott, M.D., 554; the population of France, 587; flies and disease, 621; Massachusetts General Hospital. Resolutions by the visiting staff on the retirement of Dr. H. H. A. Beach, 621; Massachusetts General Hospital resolutions by the visiting staff on the resignation of Dr. Arthur T. Cabot, 653; expert testimony in insanity, 684; deaths from Christian Science treatment, 685; the American Medical Association, 723; reduction of medical fees by life insurance companies, 724; report of milk commission, 725; International Laryngo-Rhinological Congress, 725; uterus of the opossum, 725; the Massachusetts Medical Society, 832.

Mountain-Climbing. On mountain-climbing for professional men, Austin, Cecil Kent, 799.

Myasthenia Gravis. Myasthenia gravis; demonstration of a case, Paul, W. E., 811.

Nasal Obstruction. The ocular and general symptoms in nasal obstruction. The report of an unusual case, Parker, Harry C., 331.

Nasal Septum. A new operation for correction of the nasal septum, Coffin, Rockwell A., 79; technique of submucous resection of nasal septum, Powers, G. H., Jr., 702; essential points in the technique of submucous resection of the nasal septum, Tobey, George L., Jr., 706.

Naso-Pharynx. Diseases of the naso-pharynx in infancy, Morse, John Lovett, 489.

Nerve Injury. Three cases of extensive nerve injury from removal of cervical glands, Courtney, J. W., 568.

Neurasthenia. Practical considerations in the treatment of neurasthenia, Canfield, W. C., 352.

New Instruments. A new device for adjusting the forehead mirror, Chenery, William E., 330; a new obstetric forceps, Good, Frederick L., 361; gastro-enterostomy in infants. A new instrument, Scudder, Charles L., 80.

Obituaries. Henry W. Dudley, M.D., 26; Walter A. Lecompte, M.D., 90; Julia Wallace-Russell, M.D., 217; Paul Julius Moebius, 218; Sir Michael Foster, 309; George Bingham Fowler, M.D., 338; Ernst von Bergmann, M.D., 407; George G. Wheelock, M.D., 408; John H. Brinton, M.D., LL.D., 408; Arthur E. Sansom, M.D., F.R.C.P., 443; George F. Gale, M.D., 519; Thomas Henry Wakley, F.R.C.S., 550; Hon. Alan Percy Herbert, M.D., 562; John M. Harlow, M.D., 680; Sir Joseph Fayrer, 758.

Obstetrics. A new obstetric forceps, Good, Frederick L., 361; a case of pyelitis during pregnancy, Hare, C. H., 243; a case of interstitial pregnancy, Harrington, F. B., 180; pyelitis in pregnancy and the puerperium, Newell, F. S., 241; pyelitis complicating pregnancy, Swift, J. B., 239; coincident extra- and intra-uterine pregnancy, Young, Ernest Boyen, 733.

Pancreatitis. Case of acute gangrenous pancreatitis, Jones, D. F., 438.

Pediatrics. Vocal nodules in children, Coolidge, A., Jr., 704; the physician's responsibility in the training of infants, Eastman, A. C., 738; hospitals for children, Hastings, Robert W., 607; a plea for the children, Hawes, John B., 2d, 315; report on pediatrics, Rotch, Thomas Morgan, and Morse, John Lovett, 11, 851.

Peritonitis. General peritonitis. Operation. Recovery, Crandon, L. R. G., 204; general peritonitis. Prolonged irrigation of the abdominal cavity, Crandon, L. R. G., and Scannell, David D., 6; diffuse peritonitis following appendicitis in young children with clinical reports of seven cases, Smith, Homer B., 383.

Phagocytic Cells. Localized leucocytosis associated with atypical phagocytic cells, Bartlett, W. B., 629; an extraordinary blood. Presence of atypical phagocytic cells, Van Nuys, F., 390.

Pleurisy. A case of pleurisy with effusion, treated by intrapleural injection of formalin, Chapin, Lawrence D., 505.

Poisoning. A case of poisoning by nitrobenzole, Ames, John L., 203.

Progress. Report on dermatology, Bowen, John T., and Towle, Harvey P., 709; report on orthopedic surgery, Bradford, E. H., 205; recent progress in gynecology, Burrage, W. L., 271, 303; progress in the theory and practice of medicine, Christian, Henry A., 362; recent progress in laryngology, Coolidge, A., Jr., and Barnes, H. A., 571; hygiene, Harrington, Charles, 610, 642; progress in gastro-intestinal diseases. Gastro-enterostomy, Joslin, Elliott P., and Goodall, Harry W., 506; recent progress in neurology. Aphasia, Knapp, P. A., 669; progress in surgery, Mumford, J. G., 400; progress in pathology, Pratt, Joseph H., 744, 778; report on pediatrics, Rotch, Thomas Morgan, and Morse, John Lovett, 11; recent progress in genito-urinary surgery, Watson, F. S., and Thorndike, Paul, 143; progress in pediatrics, Rotch, Thomas Morgan, and Morse, John Lovett, 851.

Prostate. Chronic enlargement of the prostate gland; suprapubic section and enucleation, Beach, H. H. A., 175; operation for hypertrophied prostate, Bolles, William P., 199; treatment of prostatic hypertrophy. The consideration of the various methods of treatment based upon the mortality and the report of twenty-four cases of median perineal prostatectomy, Cunningham, John H., Jr., 509, 636; complete suprapubic prostatectomy under nitrous oxide gas anesthesia, Walker, George, 302; two cases of prostatic hypertrophy in which the prostate was removed by total perineal prostatectomy, Watson, F. S., 199.

Psychopathology. Studies in psychopathology, Sidis, Boris, 321, 357, 394, 432, 472.

Pulse-Pressure. Pulse-pressure estimation, Franz, Shepherd Ivory, 777; pulse-pressure estimation, Putnam, James J., 330.

Pyelitis. A case of pyelitis during pregnancy, Hare, C. H., 243; pyelitis in pregnancy and the puerperium, Newell, F. S., 241; pyelitis complicating pregnancy, Swift, J. B., 239.

Rhinology. Essential points in the technique of submucous resection of the nasal septum, Tobey, George L., Jr., 706; fatal results from intranasal operation, Tobey, George L., Jr., 709.

Rockefeller Institute. Announcement of scholarships and fellowships by the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York, 223.

Resolutions. Resolutions on the resignation of Dr. William L. Richardson from the Boston Lying-In Hospital, 126; Massachusetts General Hospital resolution on the resignation of J. W. Elliot, M. D., 554; Massachusetts General Hospital. Resolutions by the visiting staff on the retirement of Dr. H. H. A. Beach, 621; Massachusetts General Hospital resolutions by the visiting staff on the resignation of Dr. Arthur T. Cabot, 653.

School Hygiene. The physical welfare of the public school children, Badger, George S. C., 667; school hygiene, Durgin, S. H., 669.

Sex Hygiene. Instruction in the physiology and hygiene of sex: its practicability as demonstrated in several public schools, Putnam, Helen C., 132.

Shakespeare. The medical knowledge of Shakespeare, Getchell, Albert C., 65; 109; the medicine in Shakespeare, 127.

Sleeping Sickness. Sleeping sickness in French East Africa, 284; sleeping sickness: an error, Spear, E. D., 315.

Societies. American Laryngological, Rhinological and Otological Society, 46; The American Surgical Association, 748, 783; Boston Medical Library, 672; Boston Society for Medical Improvement, 510; College of Physicians of Philadelphia, 81, 513; Section on General Medicine of the College of Physicians of Philadelphia, 181; The Massachusetts Medical Society, Councillors' Meeting, 211; The Medical Association of the Greater City of New York, 273; Mississippi Valley Medical Association, 15; The New England Otological and Laryngological Society, 712; The New York Psychiatrical Society, 304, 542; Obstetrical Society of Philadelphia, 243; The Philadelphia County Medical Society, 145, 576; The Philadelphia Society for the Study and Prevention of Social Disease, 115; Congress of American Physicians and Surgeons, 854; the American Surgical Association, 818.

Sodium Bicarbonate. The use and abuse of sodium bicarbonate, 157.

Specific Disease. Can a specific disease be aborted? French, J. M., 137.

Spinal Cord. Injury of spinal cord. Operation for correction of subsequent deformity, Painter, Charles F., 115; tumor of the spinal cord leading to destruction of the lumbar region, hydrocephalus, double optic neuritis and painless labor, Taylor, E. W., 161.

Subdeltoid Bursitis. Subdeltoid bursitis, Painter, Charles F., 345.

Syphilis. The control of syphilis and venereal diseases, Morrow, Prince A., 169.

Therapeutics. Physical therapeutics at the Massachusetts General Hospital. Opening of the hydrotherapeutic department, Böhm, Max, 178.

Thrombosis. Thrombosis of the cavernous sinuses; with report of four cases, Langworthy, Henry Glover, 528.

Trachoma. On the proper inspection of immigrants and school children in regard to the occurrence of trachoma, Derby, Hasket, 298.

Tuberculosis. Morphine in tuberculosis, Dock, George, 685; the treatment of tuberculosis of the hip-joint (hip-disease), Goldthwait, Joel E., 193; the tuberculosis problem of the Middlesex North District, Massachusetts, Harrington, Thomas F., and Simpson, Charles E., 595; the use of tuberculin in the early diagnosis of tuberculosis in a large out-patient clinic, Hawes, John B., 2d, and Floyd, Cleaveland, 694; the crusade against tuberculosis in Germany, Locke, Edwin A., 379, 427; the Bier suction treatment of tubercular sinuses, Sever, James Warren, 736; ancient and modern ideas concerning tuberculous adenitis, Stoll, Henry Farnum, 139; a few notes on a few cases of renal tuberculosis, Thorndike, Paul, 265; tuberculous scleritis, a commonly unrecognized form of tuberculosis, Verhoeff, F. H., 317; primary ligation of the vas deferens and its accompanying vessels before manipulating the testicle during its removal for tuberculosis or malignant growth, Walker, George, 304; the surgical treatment of renal tuberculosis, Watson, F. S., 263; cold air in incurable consumption, Clapp, Herbert C., 850.

Tumor. Sahli's desmoid reaction, Carey, H. W., 652; periductal myxoma of the breast, Graves, W. P., 503; malignant tumor of the esophagus and demonstration of the method of feeding after resection, Harrington, F. B., 180; abdominal tumor weighing eighty-three pounds, Johnson, Frederick W., 610; on the diagnosis of tumors with special reference to the evil results of overconfidence and delay, Richardson, Maurice H., 287; cerebral tumor of the right frontal lobe, Shattuck, George B., 204; demonstration and classification of benign breast tumors, Simmons, Channing C., 436; tumor of the spinal cord leading to destruction of the lumbar region, hydrocephalus, double optic neuritis, and painless labor, Taylor, E. W., 161; a case of multiple papillomata of the bladder, Davis, Lincoln, 810

Typhoid Fever. A case of typhoid fever developing a purpuric eruption of the skin, Keany, F. J., 201; perforating typhoid ulcer: operation, Vickery, Herman F., and Cobb, Farrar, 177.

Trypsin Treatment. Report on the trypsin treatment of cancer, Graves, W. P., 129.

Ulcer. A case of gastric ulcer. Perforation; operation; recovery, Balch, Franklin G., 437; perforating duodenum ulcer: operation, Beach, H. H. A., 176; hyperacidity not the rule in gastric ulcer, Chase, Richard F., 63; gastro-enterostomy with entero-enterostomy for ulcer of the pylorus, finally requiring division of the ascending loop, Lund, F. B., 202; perforating typhoid ulcer: operation, Vickery, Herman F., and Cobb, Farrar, 177; a case of chronic ulcer of the stomach unrelieved by several operations, Withington, Charles F., 201.

Uncinariasis. Observations on the campaign against uncinariasis in Porto Rico, Ashford, Bailey K., and King, W. W., 415.

Urethral Discharge. The treatment of chronic urethral discharge, Tenney, Benjamin, 425.

Urinary Calculus. Note on the Röntgen diagnosis of urinary calculus: the preparation of the patient, Brown, Percy, 566.

Yellow Fever. Letter from Honolulu. Possibility of yellow fever, Shattuck, George C., 191.